

Re-Open Arkansas endorses Jody Harris House District 25

It's not very often that the Fayetteville area gains an opportunity to elect a constitutional conservative “warrior mom” who felt called to public service to enact positive change in state government. Jody Harris is a mom of four who is fighting to restore and preserve our freedoms for future generations. As a long-term member of Reopen Arkansas, Mrs. Harris has been fully engaged in the fight to restore our liberties, stop CRT in our schools, and reduce taxes by drastically cutting the bloated bureaucracy in state government. We are confident that Jody Harris will well-represent our core values in the state legislature and consistently vote for liberty, smaller government, and parental rights. Reopen Arkansas is delighted to formally endorse Jody Harris in the Republican primary for Arkansas House District 25.

Harris policy positions important to Reopen Arkansas:
