

Re-Open Arkansas endorses Robert Steinbuch House District 73

With our freedoms under constant attack, we need strong constitutional conservatives representing us in the state legislature. Robert Steinbuch literally teaches constitutional law. As a regular contributor to The Dave Elswick Show, Steinbuch informs the public on state and local issues, while advocating for less government intrusion into our lives. As a state representative, Robert Steinbuch will zealously defend our constitutional rights. He will keep government focused on what it is supposed to do – restore safety and security to our homes and neighborhoods. With his vast knowledge of the Constitution and the law, Robert Steinbuch can help steer his colleagues in the Arkansas House toward maximum freedom, lower taxes, and less government. Steinbuch will represent you, not large corporate or big pharmaceutical interests. That's why Reopen Arkansas fully endorses Robert Steinbuch for Arkansas House District 73, and we encourage our members to generously support his campaign.

Steinbuch policy positions important to Reopen Arkansas:
